

A side-profile photograph of an ATR 72-600 twin-engine turboprop aircraft in flight. The aircraft is painted in the livery of Andorra regional Air Nostrum, featuring a white base with a prominent red and yellow horizontal stripe along the fuselage. The tail fin is white with a large red and yellow stylized 'B' logo and the text 'ATR 72-600' above it. The registration 'EC-LRH' is visible on the rear fuselage. The main fuselage displays the 'Andorra' logo, the website 'visitandorra.com', and the text 'AIR NOSTRUM' in red and blue. The aircraft is flying over a lush green forested area with some buildings visible in the distance under a clear blue sky.
